Dear Eric

I've heard of ring-necked ducks, but not long-necked ducks. I'd say <sup>gosling?</sup> ~~goose~~ for the 2<sup>1/2</sup>¢ and dove for 2<sup>5</sup> (even though it looks like a young owl.)

We have had 12" rain in 9 days, but as we are in Wisconsin's natural sandbox all is well — even the wells are up over normal water level. Iola is pretty well flushed out, rather clear — in fact much clearer than I've ever seen in 20+ years.

Best wishes

Dear Eric,

I was pleased to receive your letter regarding a new edition to The Early Paper Money.

Our stock is quite low, and we would entertain an opportunity to update it and put a new edition into print.

While our supply indicates we will be out of books within three months, I would not rush to re-publish. We should allow the wholesalers and retailers an opportunity to clear their shelves as well.

What would you think to having your manuscript changes to Krause by September 15, 1995? We could then plan to publish in early 1996.

Please advise the extent of your changes and the suggested time frame. Please don't feel pressed to meet the September date if it is too soon. I only toss it out as a starting point.

Thanks for your letter and your interest in continuing to work with us.

Warm regards,

8 PREFACE

Suggestions as to current values were coordinated by Colin R. Bruce II, and the participation of Tom Denly, Len Glazer, Roland Hill, Dana Linett, Dr. C. Radford Stearns, and F. "Fritz" Weber was most welcome. I am sincerely appreciative of the wholehearted cooperation of the staff of Krause Publications in bringing this edition to fruition, including Clifford Mishler, Colin R. Bruce II, Joan E. Melum, Paul Tofte, Larry Frank, Tom Luba, Cheryl Hayburn, Rowene Steffen, Marcia Ferg, Christi Flostad, Kandy Kapusta, Judy Jones, and Kathryn Hines.

I constantly had the benefit of using the taste level of my wife, Evelyn, as a sounding board for many decisions on style and presentation.

I wholeheartedly welcome suggestions for improvements, as I have benefited steadily from them in the past.

Dear Eric, <sup>we can supply doggy conditions</sup> Oct. 5, 1995
A suggestion or two from my ~~old~~ long time friend Fritz Weber (For EPM of America)

Insert a full ~~col~~ color, full size signature which would include various classic or attractive notes say 4 pages along with a 4 page full color grading guide. ~~Maybe 5 and 3~~ This would represent notes of the lower grades. Actually we could just call it a grading guide and end up with the last 3 pages of XF to unc notes. Maybe we'll need 12 pages?

Dear Colin:

In connection with your suggestion that I prepare a fourth edition of Early Paper Money of America you told me that you now use a new typesetting system and that the entire text will have to be reset. However you said the proofreading can be substantially done automatically rather than by person. That is a great relief to me as I do not want to have to check unchanged portions of text.

I have hundreds of additions and changes in my current updated copy.

You also said the color plate center section would have to be redone because it is not now available. I told you I thought that was good news (I didn't like it) and bad news (it is a pain to do again). Bringing all those pieces to Iola to have them shot again is tedious and exhausting. I wonder if a photographer can come here with your new equipment or use equipment here.

I want the color pictures to be inserted as part of the state they apply to if possible and not in a separate unrelated section. That would give them more meaning. Can the color picture pages be inserted in the book where desired?

My wife wishes to make suggestions for the cover.

I am thinking about the merit of a pictorial condition guide but would want XF and UNC to be included in the format.

Thanks for listening.

Sincerely,

Dear Eric,

May 20, 1996

I think the expanded 24 page color plate section including the 2 page grading (color) guide should start on page* 33. We could shorten the preface to 1 page perhaps and do a little juggling — I'll leave this to you mastery. Page* 33 starts a new signature

I just noticed the flyleaf in front is page (1 ± 2) — rather clever. Looks like makeup at printers was 16 page signatures.

Will you bring up notes for color project? — I noticed some sheets also were included.

Another fun project. I'm sure Jim C. was rather surprised to hear from you. Thank you. Everything around here has a publishing // production window — and they need me until I've completed a project within their time frame.

1 Down, more to go!

Dear Colin,

Received the EPMA proofs yesterday.

1) Have repriced. I have also added some prices for pieces that have traded publicly since the third edition.

2) Would you like a photo of the 1775 5 shilling note? It is the only known specimen. I don't know how much it would really add, but it is available for photography if you desire.

3) Of the 1/19/82 issue. The photographed note (which I do own) has been questioned for the authenticity of the signatures. ie Rofs is not listed as a signer. In fact it may be a fictitious name. I do have another specimen - an uncut sheet that is not filled in or signed. If you prefer a photograph of that let me know also. The present plate note was acquired from Fritz Weber at ANA 1977 and is probably ex Newman or John Ford.

4) Uncut sheets exist of the 1778 issues (Ford and myself), the 1782 issue and 9/10/77 issue (Governor Telfair's personal papers at the Georgia Historical Society in Savannah.)

5) Also on page eleven of the third edition, the last line of the second paragraph has physically misspelled. oops!

It is great to have the opportunity to make a small contribution to the fourth edition. Most of the bugs have been eliminated. Eric has really produced a great reference and work of love for the rest of us.

Sincerely,

R. Stearns

P.S. 6/8/77 Issue - You may want to note the #1-8 denominations - S.N 1-40 have black "in" +
above 40 have red "in" with only a few exceptions -
A black "in" is known #112.

This & you can divide on.

Okay - here is my first attempt to sum up the contents of your classic tome. Edit it as you wish as it will either carry your name or mine - whichever you prefer — or neither.

Witness the fiscal policies during early colonial times, the turbulent years of the revolution of the British Crown Colonies of North America, <sup>and</sup> as the <sup>guiding the</sup> Continental Congress ~~they~~ forged ahead to become a pioneering nation of the United States in the late eighteenth century.

I know - I'd be better at writing perfume ads for Elizabeth Taylor! (or dog food ads for Purina).

RE: 4th Edition
Early Paper Money of America

Dear Colin:

Enclosed are a challenge for your typesetters and proofreaders. Here are the first group of changed pages. They are from Pennsylvania. If you enter the new prices and price categories, you can have these pages set. Please proofread them several times or have a computer proofread them, or both. I want to see what the result looks like. If there are errors, I will be very unhappy. I made the changes in red so you can't miss them.

There will be some new and improved illustrations to be added. There will be pagination changes later.

If there is anything you do not understand, please ask now. I kept copies of the changed pages.

Please realize my time is limited for catching errors. I am overloaded with writing. If you do a superb piece of work, I will dance with joy. Do you have anyone named Joy?

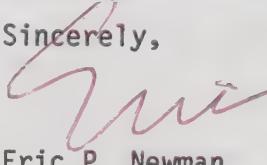

I plan to come to Iola at a mutually convenient time to shoot the cover material, the color illustrations and grading examples.

I do not know the proper editing symbols, so forgive my informal signals. I am open to suggestions as I transfer my changes from my master copy to the sheets I forward.

I will not expect compensation for my work but only reimbursement for related expenses. Also, as before, you will let me have a reasonable number of copies of the book for myself and for close friends or family, as well as Krause Publications, for ten years from publication or as long as I live, whichever is greater.

I never expected this book would draw a crowd but I have enjoyed assembling the data more than anyone could imagine. If my family had come over on the Mayflower, I might have done a better job, but my family were run out of a German hamlet and all we had was the hope of an education.

My thanks to you for your continual cooperation and encouragement.

Sincerely,

I checked 1st & 2nd edition — also we do have Whitman's negatives (someday <sup>our</sup> ~~are~~ organizational qualities are rather amazing!). In looking at the pastedups and vol III it's obvious we burned the printer's negs a bit too much and the printer may have gone a shade on the light side — (they always work around the darkest image).

So I've made the production dept aware of this and I'll check blue tones of the production negatives on final approach. But you might also consider replacing some of the poorer illustrations in the 2nd edition when this is possible. Nice chat as always!

Dear Eric

July 5, 1996

I just took a quick look of the existing color plates — boy we threw this together without any rhyme or reason!

Instead of 16 pages I'd say 24. At least 1 page for CC and then for each Colony/State in alpha order. Sheets can be tossed in here and there as filler. (This time we'll shoot ~~them~~ through glass and not have all the ugly shadows!) We've improved our photo depth considerably since ~~Vol~~ III rd edition.

Stearns sent me colored slides of his Georgia, so that is taken care of. I'm working on the grading guide in full size, full color.

Dear Mr. Cihlar:

Re: Early Paper Money of America

Your July 11, 1996 letter asks for a reply by July 10. Do you mean 1997?

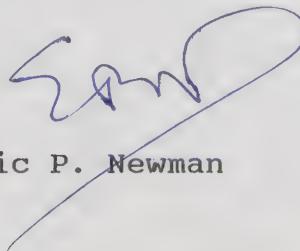

Putting a blurb on the back cover ruins the beautiful design we created. If you want advertising on the outside of the book put it on a dust wrapper or on a sheet visible on the outside of the book within the shrink wrap jacket.

I have revised what you wrote so that you may change it for a proper use or use it as it is, but I want to approve the final text regardless. My suggested revisions are enclosed.

You will note that you put the dates 1968-1800 in your text. More care is needed.

Please discuss these matters with Colin if you wish.

Here is some advertising rewrite based on what you sent.

Indulge in and enjoy exciting history with The Early Paper Money of America 4th Edition.

This thoroughly updated volume is a complete source for illustrated, historical and descriptive data on American paper money from 1686 to 1800.

Over 1000 photos including many in full color.

Inside the fourth edition you will find:

4000 updated valuations in various grades of preservation.

Grading guide for worn and repaired bills.

Listings for public and private Colonial, State and Continental Issues.

Signatures, Dates, Denominations and Mottos.

Authorized and issued note totals for each emission of bills. Expanded full color as well as black and white illustrations.

Develop your collection with confidence and authority based upon the forty years of research by author Eric P. Newman. You will gain insight into the unusual paper money experience of American during its formative period when you rely on The Early Paper Money of America 4th Edition. This book continues to be the accepted standard reference.

The author is the only numismatist who has received the two highest honors awarded in American numismatics - The Farren Zerbe Award and the Archer T. Huntington Medal for his extensive original writings on coins and paper money.

[7/17/96?]

Please explain to me how the illustrations will be transformed. Many in the 1990 edition are much poorer than in the 1976 edition. I plan to improve what I can for the 1996 edition but tell me what ~~you think~~ form ~~the~~ your illustrations for you illustrations are in now. This is a tremendous amount of work for me. We can cut up a 1967 or 1976 edition if necessary but I hope you have some decent illustrations somewhere. I know Western lost them and I believe ~~you found~~ they eventually found them and you got them.

8/2/96

To the Krause people who will set type

Dear Colin:

As you know I devoted a great part of this summer to a consolidation of the extensive new data and illustrations for the 4th edition of The Early Paper Money of America. I did so at your request because you had sold out the third edition. I assembled a quantity of original examples for color photographs and arranged for a new cover design. You have already announced the book at a $75 retail price.

I was told to be prepared to come to Iola this September to have color photographs taken and to give final suggestions to the new system of typesetting minimizing the need of proofreading. I already have sent you all text revisions and new or improved black and white illustrations. You have obtained the revised values. The setting of new pages was to begin over a month ago and your publication department was pushing me for advertising text, etc.

Where is the hang up? What can you tell me about the reason for the delay? I have put an immense amount of time into this project. Nothing is easy so let's get the show on the road. Let me hear from you.

Your friend,

Eric P. Newman

Dear Colin:

The typesetting was much better than I expected so I am delighted overall. -- but I am very disappointed that your typesetters did not use appropriate italic type in the text of denominational descriptions in the Pennsylvania section. Instead they used slanting Roman type. I very carefully specified italic and underlined it wherever needed. The money itself uses typical italic type just as your typesetters did when they set the title to reference books.

This is a lot of work to change as there are four spellings of Pennsylvania where italics are used. After all the work I did I find it confusing to see slanted Roman which is so close to vertical Roman. It will confuse the readers unnecessarily. This is new material for this edition.

I think you should make the changes. I do not show changes in my proofreading. Your typesetters will hate me but I like them. It only involves Pennsylvania and only a scattering of entries.

Could you paste the proper italic spelling over the top of the slanted Roman? Then you would not have to reset anything else. Make a pile of each spelling and cut them close and stick them on. Maybe only one line can be replaced rather than the group of nearby entries.

Thanks,

Eric P. Newman

Dear Colin:

I appreciate all the work you did in inserting italic type in the Pennsylvania section as I requested. This needs some few refinements but is very important.

I have checked the copies of the changed pages sent to me earlier this month, but I may not have been sent all of the corrected pages. Please send the following for me to proofread: Title, title verso, 11, 12, 13, 16, 18, 19, 21, 24, 25, 26, 28, 30, 31 and 32.

I am sending you herewith for correction: unnumbered but actually page 4, pages 5, 6, 73, 230, 317, 330, 334, 339, 344, 345, 356, 421, 428, along with another copy of the new picture to be substituted at the bottom, 451, 486 (last line of old 485 was not carried to the top of 486), 487 (last line of 486 may have to be carried to the top of this page). Please have all of the above corrected and send me copies as soon as convenient.

I presume my requests to lighten up certain pictures have been taken care of if necessary as I realize photocopies of illustrations often reproduce too dark.

Please send these items as soon as you conveniently can. My eyes are falling out of their sockets checking all this.

Thanks and my best to you,

Eric P. Newman

COMPLETE MONTHLY GUIDE FOR PAPER MONEY COLLECTORS

Dear Sir Eric, ("Sri" in Tamil) Feb. 22, 1997

Seems this person would like to contact you - whereas all I want to do is entertain you on our turf. Well we can't celebrate Washington's birthday together this year & the St Louis Stamp Expo comes up March 7 & 8. We may have some people from our stamp division there.

Sudden cold snap - well what's new in trndia around Iola anyway - this time of the year.

Best wishes

Re: EPMOA.

Dear Colin:

Thank you for copies of the pages in answer to my 3/25/97 letter. Few of the pages were corrected as requested so I assume my corrections got lost.

I therefore send back for correction pages 11, 12, 13, 16, 18, 19, 21, 24, 25, 26, 28, 30, 31, 32 and 431. The page 431 was previously sent alone but is changed again.

Please make these changes and mail back revised pages. I am sorry to cause work but it is not my fault I hope.

As soon as we photo and do the color section we will have minor changes on the title, title verso, b ad 7.

I am preparing to come and will telephone to schedule the visit.

Yours eccentric author)

P.S. Changes could have already been made to 11, 12 and 13 but I have no evidence of it.

Dear Eric,

May 20, 1997

A most enjoyable trip my friend
Shopping after airport - finally got home at 2 pm!

I ran across this information quite by accident while looking up some other stuff in his catalog.
I'm sure you may have encountered it before but maybe not - so here it is.

Best wishes

furent acquittées pour leur montant, celles de 1758, 1759, 1760 et années antérieures, pour moitié de leur valeur, quant aux billets de monnaie ils ne furent honorés que pour le quart.

Enfin une convention fut passée le 29 mars 1766 entre les cours de France et d'Angleterre pour l'indemnisation des sujets britanniques et canadiens porteurs de papier-monnaie. Une indemnité forfaitaire de trois millions de livres tournois leur fut accordée<sup>81</sup>.

Telle fut la liquidation du régime monétaire du Canada français.

La situation monétaire de la Louisiane rappelle à maints égards celle du Canada, mais les conditions démographiques et économiques qui déterminent la circulation des espèces y sont plus accentuées que pour la Nouvelle-France.

Ainsi que l'a excellemment établi dans une récente étude M. Abel Giraud<sup>82</sup> aucune des colonies françaises d'Amérique n'a pris naissance dans des conditions plus difficiles que la Louisiane. Pour soutenir cette entreprise coloniale destinée à prévenir l'occupation des bouches du Mississippi par d'autres puissances, la France n'avait au début du XVIII<sup>e</sup> siècle ni les ressources matérielles, ni les forces morales qui lui avaient permis d'engager avec un succès relatif la colonisation du Canada et des Antilles.

Après le traité d'Utrecht, le Gouvernement royal accorda quelque attention à la Louisiane et crut résoudre toutes les difficultés que pouvait susciter la mise en valeur de ces contrées en les constituant en domaine privé. Louis XIV accorda à un homme d'affaires, Crozat, le monopole à perpétuité de l'exploitation des mines et celui du commerce pour quinze années. Les affaires de Crozat périclitèrent et son œuvre en Louisiane fut à peu près nulle.

Lorsqu'il créa sa Compagnie d'Occident ou du Mississippi, Law, en 1717, enleva à Crozat ses priviléges pour les concéder à la nouvelle compagnie, pour une durée de 25 ans. Law crut aussi avoir donné à son papier-monnaie la garantie effective du produit des mines de métaux précieux qui ne pouvaient manquer d'être découvertes dans les régions concédées. Un arrêt du Conseil d'Etat du 16 juillet 1719 autorisa l'estampillage de billets au timbre de la Compagnie à concurrence de 20 millions de livres. Mais on ne saurait déduire de cette autorisation que des billets aient été mis en circulation pour une telle somme en Louisiane.

Bien au contraire la faiblesse du peuplement, l'état de misère des rares émigrés déjà établis vont à l'encontre de telles possibilités<sup>83</sup>. L'introduction de l'esclavage qui aurait pu faire sortir la colonisation de son marasme était contrariée par l'hostilité des missions religieuses et par le gouvernement royal. Il n'existe donc pas de mouvements d'échange susceptibles de provoquer une circulation monétaire de quelque importance. Si donc l'émission de 1719 a été faite, les 20 millions de livres ont été utilisés dans le royaume et les sommes peu importantes envoyées dans la colonie en sont bien vite réparties. Quant à la circulation métallique, elle devait-être assurée par les émissions ordonnées par l'édit de juin 1721. Un arrêt du Conseil du 30 août 1721 qui met à la charge de la Compagnie des Indes les frais de fabrication prévoit l'envoi des monnaies en Louisiane et à Bourbon.

En 1725 la Louisiane ne comptait que 3.700 blancs, dont 1.000 à la Nouvelle-Orléans et 1.300 nègres. Dans son existence française elle ne dépassa jamais 7.000 habitants<sup>84</sup>.

83. Abel-Giraud. Op. cit., p. 185.

84. Saintoyant. Op. cit., II, p. 83.

La politique de peuplement volontaire ayant échoué, le peuplement forcé fut instauré. Ce fut l'époque des rafles qui groupèrent les filles détenues, les vagabonds, les condamnés grâciés. Le seul apport intéressant pour la colonisation fut celui des colons français d'Acadie et du Canada qui voulurent se soustraire à la domination anglaise.

La Compagnie des Indes qui avait succédé à celle du Mississippi ne put continuer ses efforts, elle renonça en 1731 à son privilège. La colonie fut placée dans le domaine de la Couronne. Le gouverneur de Bienville trouva les finances délabrées, la circulation monétaire complètement désorganisée. Il obtint le 14 septembre 1735 une ordonnance l'autorisant à émettre 200.000 livres de monnaie de carte<sup>85</sup>. Cette somme n'ayant pas suffi à assurer les payements des dépenses de la colonie, les autorités locales eurent recours à des ordonnances de payement, à des billets émis par les commis des trésoriers locaux. Répandus sans contrôle et en quantité considérable, ces moyens fiduciaires tombèrent rapidement dans un discrédit complet entraînant celui de la monnaie de carte<sup>86</sup>. La perte variait chaque jour atteignant 25 % et même 75 %.

Une Déclaration du roi du 27 avril 1744 ordonna le retrait de la monnaie de carte. Le remboursement fut effectué en lettres de change sur le trésorier de la Marine à Paris avec réduction de 150 %.

Cet acte est le dernier connu relatif à la circulation monétaire en Louisiane. Absorbée par les obligations de la guerre contre l'Angleterre, la monarchie fut amenée par la force des choses, à prendre de moins en moins d'intérêt aux affaires de cette colonie. Pour se rallier l'Espagne à la fin de la guerre de Sept ans, Louis XV lui promit des compensations territoriales la relevant des pertes qu'elle pourrait subir du fait de son alliance. En échange de la Floride cédée par l'Espagne à l'Angleterre qui lui restituait Manille et Cuba, la France abandonna secrètement la Louisiane. Cet abandon ne fut communiqué aux populations que le 21 avril 1764. Les véhémentes protestations de nos colons et les représailles qui suivirent n'entrent pas dans le cadre de cet ouvrage.

Dear Colin:

You truly took care of me on my visit to Iola. You inspired me to work so hard I was physically tired but we got the job done. I thank you for all you did to make it fun.

I look forward to a color print makeup of all the color pages we planned. My wife wants a proper selection of the background color by Jan Valetto in St. Louis. I want to check the text on them also.

As to the covers please send a suggested layout in color so we can get the right background color as well as the best placement of the items to be used.

I expect the paper for the book will be as good as the 3rd edition or better. The covers and binding will be at least equal in quality.

I am glad there is to be no grading section as this will only cause difficulty, confusion and argument.

I can send one more watermark for that page if you wish.

Do you think we should put "Reduced to 90%" or something like that on the color pages where that has occurred. It could be in very small type and would help.

I enclose a change to the text portion (p.84) and the wording to put on the playing card picture.

Please tell me if you can about how many books you plan to print and if this is to be in confidence. Please tell me when you expect to print it and I'll help with advertising text if needed.

I will prepare a list of those who get complimentary copies from me.

I will send you my out of pocket expenses in due course.

I enjoyed working with Ross Hubbard and do appreciate the efficient way in which he took the pictures. If they don't come out I'll change my mind.

Please give the enclosed bank notes to your son. Tell the rat to stop biting the tails of the cats or I will ask Willie the ferret to bite the rat's tail. Be sure not to buy the miniature donkey. I hope your wife has enough cat furniture by now.

Here's to a clean life with volcanic ash.

Sincerely,

Eric P. Newman

My visit to Iola was a delight - particularly the time we spent together. Thank you for taking me out to dinner and telling me so many interesting things about your life. Your ability to continue to be active in so many endeavors is an inspiration to all of your loyal associates and to those of us who are lucky enough to know you.

May our paths cross often.

Dear Eric,

May 28, 1997

They are putting cover together and will submit a proof - they are scanned (rather crudely so don't get all excited.)

Now all I need is the makeup/order for the 24 page color section and any additional notations that you may have added to your photocopies so I can get them processed.

By chance do you know an Alex Adams of St. Louis? Just had a complaint on him.

My very best wishes

Dear Mr. Newman:

Enclosed you'll find an Iris color proof for the cover of The Early Paper Money of America, 4th Edition. You'll note that this represents a very close rendition of the original cover plan that we received from you more than a year ago. The note outlines will be tightly cropped prior to film output. Also, the UPC/EAN code must be added to one of the four corners on the back cover. I've placed a sample so that you can visualize it. If you'd prefer it in one of the other three corners, please make the change.

Please review this proof, mark up any changes and please return to me by no later than Friday, June 27.

With the approval of this cover, the only piece of this book remaining to be completed is the 24-page color section. Colin Bruce indicates that you and he have been in contact regarding this, but he has yet to receive your instructions on how to treat this section. As this book was originally advertised as a September 1996 release, it is imperative that we get the color section planned, produced and proofed as soon as possible.

If you have any questions, please feel to call me directly via the Krause line at extension 440. Thank you for your help.

Dear Mr. Newman:

Enclosed is the original artist mock-up for the cover of The Early Paper Money of America. You'll note that it is a close rendition of the original with a few exceptions:

- The spine type was rotated 180 degrees to conform to publishing standards and reduced in size to fit the Krause logo.
- The title and author name were increased in size. This is a marketing issue; we could knock the size down a couple of points from current, but the original was too small for easy identification from a distance.
- The red color was problematic in that trying to match the specified Pantone 1945C provided a process color that was very magenta-oriented and difficult to see against the blue background. Instead, we created a process equivalent that closely matched the red on the enclosed mock-up.

Note that the mock-up was identified as 109% of actual size; the differential is actually greater than this (111%) which should be taken into consideration when comparing the two versions. Also, we still need you to select a location for the UPC/EAN code. I suggest upper left-hand corner to avoid covering up some of the artwork.

Please call me back at your earliest possible convenience with your comments. Changing the size of the artwork will be no problem; obviously we want to avoid distorting the appearance of the bills or misleading collectors as to their relative size. Thank you for your help.

CORRECTIONS TO COLOR PAGES 33 through 56

On all pages eliminate the headings next to the page numbers. These are unnecessary as all pages have titles.

It is understood that the black outlines around images will be removed.

- ✓ p. 33 The lower right image is a counterfeit and there should be a genuine image put in its place. You have a genuine image of the back of the upper right note.
- ✓ p. 34 Upper right image is too large and should be reduced to same size as upper left note. Middle left note is too small and should be increased in size to that of upper left note. To make room for the size change move the heading to the right and raise the position of the two top left images.
- ✓ p. 35 Lighten the color somewhat as the paper color is too dark.
- ✓ p. 36 The actual color is pale blue. This looks pinkish. Can you improve the color to bluish.
- ✓ p. 37 Text of heading is wrong. It should read Two Color Continental Currency
- ✓ p. 38 Reduce lower left image 15% in dimensions. Color should be ~~bluish~~ more bluish of that image.
- ✓ p. 39 Can the paper color be lightened a little.

✓ p. 40 Wonderful

✓ p. 41 Eliminate gray background around cards
Correct hyphenation on second to last line of text. It should be Louis-iana

✓ p. 42 OK

✓ p. 43 Move heading to left. Enlarge both upper images on right side as much as possible (perhaps 10%) so they can still fit in the space up to the top border.

✓ p. 44 Enlarge upper left image 5%.

✓ p. 45 Reduce right lower image 10% in dimensions

✓ p. 46 OK

Reduce middle left bill 15%

✓ p. 48 Lower right note should be rotated 180 degrees to face properly.

✓ p. 49 The middle right bill is a counterfeit.
Please replace it with the back of the other 20 Shilling Pennsylvania note.
Two images on the left side need to be rotated 180 degrees to face properly

p. 50 Move the title heading to the left to make room. Raise the notes on the right side upward somewhat. Enlarge the lower right image 10% and place it on the same level as the lower right image.

too large*

Change the top line of the title to the style and size type of the other pages. Make the second line much smaller.

Switch the position of the two images on the right side but leave the subtitle under them as they are. The genuine and the counterfeit got mixed up.

I want to see the new proofs as there are so many changes. I will be away from Aug 6 to Aug 21 so you better get them to me in a hurry.

Dear Eric -

July 31, 1997

Boy, I'll be glad to get EP04 off to the printers and out on the street. It's really been quite a task, hasn't it?

Here's your personal copy of the Louisiana note. Ignore the ruler - that just refers to the size - the illustration was printed at 1. I have a copy also - but notice it is in the Seville Archives. May make a nice new page for EP05, eh? When do you start?  I know, after you find the British medals.

Color pages all received. In addition to changes stated in my prior FAX today I have a few more.

p.47 The position of the word "Proof" is confusing. It applies to the lower right bill. It would be best to move it over the top of the long side of the bill like this:

p.50

The lower right bill is tilted down to the right and when the black outline is cleared away it will look badly positioned. Shift it please.

The lower left bill is the other side of the lower right bill. Either enlarge the lower left or reduce the lower right so they both are the same size. I prefer doing a little of each so they will be natural size.

p.55 You still have the top line of the title in much too large type. It should be the same size and style as the top line titles of the other color pages. It is not a new section and is only part of the color section.

p.56 Reduce size of top line of title as provided for p.55.

AFTER CHANGES PUT IT TO BED.

Thanks for the color section foxes

Pages 49 thru 54 have NOT come yet.

I made foreign spelling errors on page 41. Please correct them.

Change word in title: Louisiane instead of Louisiana

In the text:

line 11, Capitalize C in cathedral line 12, Put period • after (Twelve days).

line 17, Change spelling iane instead of iana

Be sure to remove the black outlines in all places.

We are almost there!

Here are the revised pages for the color section. Some of the notes photocopy quite dark, and I'm sure the fax transmission degrades their quality even more, but hopefully you can ascertain that the correct notes are in the correct position.

If you find corrections, I'd please write them up and fax them back to me at 715-445-4087.

Enjoy your trip to Africa. Hopefully, bound copies of the book will greet you shortly after your return.

Thanks for your continuing support of the book production process.

Dear Eric:

Colin Bruce reminded me that we owed you some copies of the finished Early Paper Money of America, 4th Edition. Here are a couple of advance copies.

I hope you enjoy the results. I think the color section is particularly nice.

Apparently you will need additional complimentary copies, and you may need some sent to contributors. Please call me with the details, or mail/fax me a list of where copies should be sent.

Thanks for your hard work on this fine edition!

Memo

TO: My friends at Krause Publications
FROM: Eric P. Newman EPN

I just received from you a copy of the 4th edition of EPMA. The color sections are absolutely gorgeous. The black & white pictures are strong and beautiful. The type is very forceful. I realize how much work you put into it to make it so attractive, and I shudder to tell you how much time I put into it. As in the past, I want you to send out copies to about 30 out-of-town institutions, friends, relatives and helpers, and if the books are not shrink wrapped, I will send a thank you to insert in each before you send them. If they are shrink wrapped, we could tape my greetings onto the shrink wrap. Your wrapping machine keeps the books in good shape in transit, as the two which were sent to me both had cover corner bending. In addition to those copies which you are to mail, I will deliver to St. Louis institutions, close friends, relatives and helpers copies of the book, and for that purpose I need 15 examples. For my personal vanity, I need 25 examples, making a total of 40 to be sent to St. Louis in bulk. Naturally, I will not sell any of these books or interfere with your customers.

I want to thank all of you for tolerating my perfectionist attitude and I hope the book is a howling success.

Dear Don:

Thank you for your October 21, 1997 letter as to the fourth edition of The Early Paper Money of America. I am delighted with it. The cover appearance is mellow in color and very attractive. As you commented the inside color section is particularly nice.

Enclosed is a list of names to send copies of the book on my behalf. I will send a small note to put in each copy if they are not shrink wrapped. If they are shrink wrapped no note is needed unless you feel we should tape "Compliments of the author and the publisher" on the wrap. I will do whatever you think best.

Please send 40 copies to St. Louis for local distribution and my own retention. I hope the book sells well and if you need anything from me for promotion please let me know.

Thanks for all your input. It was a pleasure working with you.

Your list of individuals who are to receive complimentary copies of the Early Paper Money of America, 4th Edition, arrived about an hour after our phone conversation last week. I processed the request through our warehouse, along with your order for 40 complimentary copies. All should be delivered by the end of the month.

Enclosed you will find a rough draft for the press release that we will be sending out to potential reviewers; the list consists of about 150 people around the world, some of whom automatically receive a free copy of the book. Please review the copy and call me or fax me with corrections by the morning of November 24. If there are no changes needed, no need to contact me.

Thank you for your help. If you have any other questions or concerns, please feel free to call me any time.

early paper money of america ... add one

Written and updated by noted numismatist Eric P. Newman, the fourth edition of The Early Paper Money of America includes more than 4,000 updated valuations for ~~all known~~ notes dating from 1686 to 1800 in various grades of preservation.

Featured are more than 900 black-and-white ~~photographs~~ to aid in the accurate identification of a variety of notes, including Colonial, ~~later~~ Continental, ~~and state~~ issues. Also featured is a full-color section with more than 90 photographs ~~that has been expanded to include a grading guide for lesser quality, well worn, and repaired examples~~ of selected issues.

Running 488 pages (8 1/2 inches by 11 inches), The Early Paper Money of America provides a comprehensive, detailed study of every paper money issue, public and private, extant or non-extant, with statistics, varieties, and special features. The hardcover book contains comprehensive background information for each issue, along with authorized and issued totals for each denomination, wherever possible. Also included are the names of signers ~~with their appointment dates~~, along with actual dates of the issues to which they put their respective pens. ←

Notes are divided into categories by state, territory, and Continental Currency/Federal Issues. Featured is a symbols and abbreviations section, a historical introduction, bibliography, and ~~grading guide with~~ color plates. Appendices contain information on sheet structure, counterfeits, and exchange values, including Revolutionary War depreciation tables and a complete reprinting of Benjamin Franklin's explanation of "nominal money." Indices cover printers, engravers, and designers; watermarks; and mottoes and emblematic legends.

The Early Paper Money of America, 4th edition, can be purchased from hobby book dealers or directly from the publisher for $75.00 plus $3.25 for shipping for the first book and $2 for each additional book. Wisconsin residents, please add 5 1/2-percent sales tax.

Dear Cliff:

Your thoughtfulness in bringing me the Paper Money book award at the Portland A.N.A. convention is most sincerely appreciated as it was a total surprise. If you had anything to do with submitting it into the competition, then I thank you for that too.

The highlight for me was the Bressetts receiving the Foreign Zorba Award.

The breakfast for the Ambassadors was a great start even though Ed Rochette has not adjusted to Tony introducing himself as Ed Rochette, Junior.

Thrive,

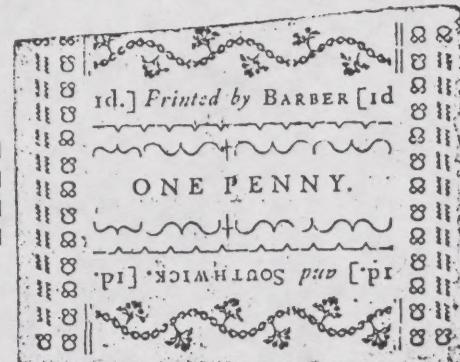

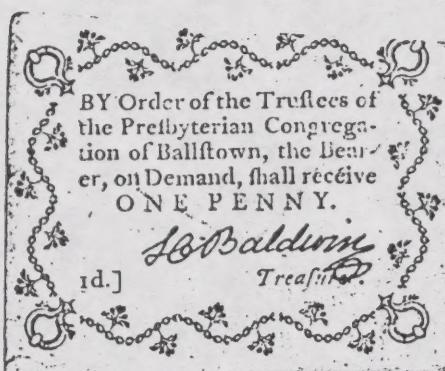

Sincerely,

Eric P. Newman
